Subject: The Hotel In 1955

[redacted] employee of [redacted] Heating + Air Conditioning was sent to the Ahwahnee Hotel, from San Bernardino. While working under the hotel he heard a loud SNUF. When he turned + looked, there was a bear! He raised his hammer & loudly yelled. He and the bear ran out as fast as they could, & I don't remember who was first. When [redacted] got out, some very young employees were laughing at his fears. They said: "Why [redacted], that's our PET BEAR!"

I was terrified, even in the telling of this!

In 1990, as a widow, I moved to the [redacted] Sonora, Tuolumne County. In '91 I attended the [redacted] I heard a masculine voice in back of me. The man said to another person: "I had a small Heating & Air Conditioning business in San Bernardino & retired in Columbia." I turned & shouted: [redacted] We celebrated a sweet little reunion.

There were 2400 people at the Fair & a miracle brought us together — the Boss & his employee's wife.

Saving the AHWAHNEE will be in my prayers.
