

A. Carolin Frank– A Brief Biography

A. Carolin Frank has BS degree in Molecular Biotechnology Engineering from Uppsala University, Sweden, an MS degree in Bioinformatics from Ecole Normale Supérieure de Lyon, France, and a PhD degree in Molecular Evolution from Uppsala University.

Carolin moved to California from Sweden to join the faculty of UC Merced in 2008 after working as a postdoctoral fellow at Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland. Carolin's research focuses on the evolution, ecology, and function of the bacterial communities associated with forest trees and corals.