

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

ZION NATIONAL PARK

Search Management

March 3-7, 2008

8 am - 5 pm (8-12 on Friday, March 7)

Zion Canyon Community Center
Springdale, UT
Hosted by Zion National Park

Description: This course will examine search management theory and provide tools for managing large scale search incidents through lecture and classroom based scenarios.

Participants: 40, approximately 20 spots available through nomination.

Supplies: Textbook will be provided. If possible, please bring a laptop computer with 25' extension cord; wireless capability is preferable but not mandatory.

Course Coordinator/Contact: Kevin Killian, Zion NP
435-772-7825 office
435-772-0496 fax
kevin_killian@nps.gov

Instructors: Ken Phillips and Bil Vandergraff, Grand Canyon NP
Special guest David Lovelock, developer of CASIE search software

Travel/Per Diem/tuition: No tuition, all other expenses paid by benefiting account.

Local lodging available at: Zion Park Inn (Best Western) 435-772-3200
Flanigan's Inn 435-772-3244
Find plenty more at <http://www.zionpark.com/>

Nominations: Deadline January 18, 2008. Please submit names for nomination by email through your supervisor to kevin_killian@nps.gov. Due to limited class size, nominations should include a brief justification which includes the responsibilities of your position and previous search management experience.