

Zion's Visitor Use Management Plan Public Listening Sessions

Zion National Park is hosting a series of public listening sessions as part of a Visitor Use Management (VUM) planning process.

Park managers are looking for ways to improve visitor experiences at Zion while protecting the park's fundamental resources and values.

Monday, May 23, 5-7 pm
Canyon Community Center
126 Lion Blvd, Springdale UT

Tuesday, May 24, 5-7 pm
Southern Utah University
Sharwan Smith Student Center, Brian Head Room
351 W. 200 S., Cedar City UT

Wednesday, May 25, 5-7 pm

Visitation to Zion National Park has been increasing for decades, but extraordinarily since 2010. In 2015, 3,662,220 people visited the park, 450,624 more visitors than in 2014, which was also a record year. Zion's peak season continues to extend further into the early spring and late fall and we are looking for public input on this subject.
